Gensus to be Taken.

West Virginia has been divided into six districts for the purpose of taking the census of 1920. Wayne county has been placed in the fifth district. The counties composing this district are; Lincoln Logan, McDowell, Mercer, Mingo, Monroe, Summers, Wayne and Wyoming. The population of these counties in 1910 was 206,573 and the pepulation of the whole state was 1,221,119. Albert S. Johnson of Monroe county, has been appointed as census supervisor of the fifth district of which Wayne county is a part.—Wayne News.

Wayne Girl Wins Prize.

The Wayne News says: A list of the state prize winners has just been sent to Miss Josephine Malcolm, County demonstration agent. It is noted in this list that Rebecca Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jackson, has been awarded the seventh premium, an assortment of six containers. Miss Jackson is a second year club girl. Wayne county prize winners have succeeded in taking state prizes each year with the exception of one since the club work was started.

Deputy Marshal A. J. Potter, Collector S. J. Cornett and Sheriff D. S. Spencer have returned from a raid in the Tug river section. On Pond creek they arrested five Hungarians who are charged with lilicit stilling, captured from "house stills" and one outfit. These people, it seems, were making a beverage on their cook stoves by means of a copper still which had a twenty or thirty gallon capacity. The officer had no trouble with the men, whose wives begged earnestly for them laying all blame on themselves.
